

Coffee Sales Analytics Report

Period: March 2024 - March 2025

1. Top Performing Product

Latte is the highest revenue-generating product, bringing in R27,866.30 for the year and representing 24.14% of total revenue. Its broad appeal across all customer segments makes it the clear bestseller.

2. Peak Sales Time

Revenue is distributed consistently across all three time periods:

Time of Day	Revenue (ZAR)
Afternoon	R39,033.74
Morning	R39,018.04
Night	R37,380.20

The marginal difference between Afternoon and Morning suggests consistently high customer traffic throughout the day.

3. Monthly Revenue Trend

October 2024 recorded the highest monthly revenue at R13,891.16, driven by seasonal parties and events. January 2025 was the lowest month at R6,398.86, attributed to schools reopening and reduced post-holiday spending.

4. Quarterly Sales Performance

Quarter	Units Sold	Revenue (ZAR)
Q1 2024	206	R7,050.20
Q2 2024	690	R23,542.74
Q3 2024	853	R24,518.42
Q4 2024	944	R13,891.16

Q4 was the strongest quarter by units sold (944), anchored by October's peak performance.

5. Payment Method Preference

Customers overwhelmingly prefer card payments, with 3,547 card transactions versus only 89 cash transactions — a 97.5% card usage rate. This reflects a clear shift toward digital payments: cards eliminate the need to carry cash, reduce the risk of loss or theft, and enable better financial tracking.

6. Busiest Day of the Week

Tuesday consistently records the highest transaction volume each week, with an average transaction value above R85 per customer.

7. Average Transaction Value

The average transaction value across all products is R36.07. Cappuccino leads in transaction frequency, followed by Hot Chocolate — a favourite particularly among female customers.

8. Peak Hour

10:00 AM is the single busiest hour of the day, aligning with customers starting their morning routines with coffee before or during work.

9. Product Revenue Contribution

Latte dominates at 24.14% of total revenue. Hot Chocolate is a strong secondary performer, driven by consistent demand from customers who prefer chocolate-based drinks.

Key Takeaways

- Push Latte promotions as the flagship product — it drives 24.14% of all revenue.
- Focus staffing and inventory on Tuesday afternoons and the 10 AM slot.
- Consider card-only express lanes given the 97.5% card usage rate.
- Plan seasonal promotions around October to maximise the natural revenue peak.
- Investigate strategies to boost January sales during the slow post-holiday period.
